"Confessions of a Media
Junkie: Why Overdosing
on News Media is Harmful to our Mental Health and Dangerous for our Society"

With Dr.
Nachum Klafter

In this video-conference, Dr.
Klafter will share his thoughts and lead a group discussion on the impact of news-media consumption.

Dr. Nachum Klafter is a psychiatrist and psychoanalyst who specializes in intensive psychotherapy and psychoanalytic treatments for patients suffering from refractory and complex mental disorders. He teaches psychotherapy and psychoanalysis at the University of Cincinnati and the Cincinnati Psychoanalytic Institute. Dr. Klafter has published and delivered professional lectures on the theory and practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy, trauma, boundaries and ethics, psychoanalytic interpretation of media and music, and a variety of topics on the interface between psychology, traditional Judaism, and religion.
